

Doug Schumacher is the BCES lab coordinator at Wartburg College in Waverly, IA. He teaches in the general chemistry program, develops the general chemistry lab curriculum, and is the chemical hygiene officer for the department. He has also taught chemistry at both Luther College and North Iowa Area Community College. Doug earned his BS in chemistry at Wartburg College and his MS in analytical chemistry from Iowa State University. Doug develops experiments and presents training workshops for MicroLAB, Inc.